

9213. Mosley Street.

Newcastle upon Tyne.

July 3rd 1867

My dear friend
128
Just a line to say we have decided to have a Public Meeting in the Town Hall on Monday - Have telegraphed to Alderman Bowen M.P. to preside, but got a repage to say he cannot leave London.

In his absence I am to be Chairman, tho'
this will afford me intense pleasure I must rather the duty had been placed in abler hands -

We cannot think of ever going to any Hotel

John Lawson

And so we find it is your son not son in law who is coming with you
we have three rooms
quite at your service - You will say by what train you will arrive here in order that we may meet you -

glorious meeting
at St. James' Hall - every body delighted with the report -

Believe me to be your aff. friend
John Macason

John Macason,
Newcastle-on-Tyne,
July 3, 1867.

